UTOPIAN 1970

Saint Thomas More School
AT GARDNER LAKE
COLCHESTER, CONNECTICUT

JAMES FOX HANRAHAN

May, 1970

On behalf of the entire yearbook staff, I am pleased to present the 1970 Utopian.

Like every yearbook staff before us, we began the year with great ideas, planning to make this far and away the finest that Saint Thomas More or any other school had seen. But, as the deadlines neared and the work piled up, we realized this was impossible. We hope, nonetheless, that the 1970 Utopian will provide many enjoyable moments and bring back many pleasant memories now and in the years to come.

The staff of the Utopian 1970 is extremely indebted to the many sponsors, patrons, and advertisers as well as to the many people, too numerous to mention, without whose help this book would not have been possible.

Traditionally, the contents of a school yearbook are limited to records of that academic year. In the 1970 edition of the UTOPIAN, however, we feel that a break with tradition is important in order to provide the graduating class with a record of one of the most memorable events in the brief history of this school. The event to which we refer was the dedication of the John F. Kennedy Dormitory by His Eminence, Richard, Cardinal Cushing in the closing days of the 1968-69 school year.

To The Class of 1970

It hardly seems possible that the time for your graduation from Saint Thomas More has arrived. When just a few short years ago you entered our gates for the first time, the road ahead seemed difficult and never-ending. The months and years since have really flown along. You have applied yourselves well. You have developed good study skills. You have order and discipline in your lives. You have confidence developed through hard work and constant application. You have truly merited the title "The Saint Thomas More Citizen," a man for all seasons.

Now you must go on to your future successes. I know the road ahead again will be difficult and full of trials. But you must go and go and go with confidence. You have prepared yourselves well and we know you will have success. But if you do not return again and again to your home here on Gardner Lake we will feel that we have failed.

Go now and God Bless You.

James F. Hanrahan, Headmaster

"But we shall be remembered,
We few, we happy few,
We band of brothers."
William Shakespeare
